Charity Yachting Regatta

on Sydney Harbour Friday 17 March 2017
Sail to build a home for homeless youth

OFFICIAL NOTICE: IMPORTANT INFORMATION

You've probably been wondering about the weather in relation to tomorrow's Regatta. The Regatta Organising Committee has made a considered decision not to sail due to predicted excessive winds. Your safety is our priority.

However, the good news is...

Our "Viva Cuba" party at Middle Harbour Yacht Club will still go ahead and we look forward to seeing you there! To make it easier for you and your guests to attend, we will start at an earlier time of 12.30pm.

Several marques will be there to provide shelter. Food and drinks will be available as planned, as will entertainment and the usual PIF Regatta atmosphere.

It's all in the interest of homeless young people

Remember the event is all about the homeless young people. We're looking forward to you being there to celebrate building another home for these young people in need and helping us to fundraise through raffle ticket sales.

The industry's best networking event

This is a premier business networking opportunity with a difference, so organise yourself a maxi taxi, get all your crew over to Middle Harbour and enjoy the celebration! We ask each registered guest to pick up their wrist band at our check-in desk at MHYC on arrival.

See you all on the beach on Friday for our afternoon event!

Thank you so much for your understanding - and caring about the homeless young people.
